

INFORMATION SYSTEMS TESTING TECHNICIANS (NOC: 2283)

Completion of a college program in computer science, computer programming or network administration is usually required.

Work Prospects (2018 - 2020): Good

Information systems testing technicians execute test plans to evaluate the performance of software applications and information and telecommunications systems. They are employed in information technology units throughout the private and public sectors.

Employment by Industry

Examples of duties performed

- Develop and document software testing plans
- Install software and hardware and configure operating system software in preparation for testing
- Execute, analyze and document results of software application tests and information and telecommunication systems tests
- Develop and implement software and information system testing policies, procedures and scripts
- Identify, report, track and propose solutions to product defects.

Sample Job Titles

Application testing technician

Systems testing technician

Application tester

15

Job Openings
2017-2026

$24.40

Median
Wage
(per hour)

Funded by the Government of Canada and the Province of New Brunswick through the Canada-New Brunswick Labour Market Agreements.