Repayment Assistance and Benefits

- Reservist Benefit

  If you are a member of the Canadian Forces Reserves and have been deployed on designated operations, are about to be deployed or are away from your studies receiving training specific to an upcoming deployment, you may be eligible for the Reservist Benefit. Visit Financial assistance for Reservists - Canada.ca for more information.

- Repayment Assistance Plans

  The Repayment Assistance Plan (RAP) and the Repayment Assistance Plan for Borrowers with a Disability (RAP-D) can help if you are having difficulty repaying your student loan debt. The National Student Loans Service Centre (NSLSC) administers the RAP and RAP-D on behalf of the Government of Canada and New Brunswick. If you face financial difficulty after completing your studies, call the NSLSC (1-888-815-4514) before you begin missing payments.

- Canada Student Loan Forgiveness for Family Doctors and Nurses

  Family doctors, residents in family medicine, nurse practitioners, and nurses that practice in under-served rural or remote communities may be eligible to have a portion of their Canada Student Loan (CSL) forgiven. Visit Canada Student Loan forgiveness for family doctors and nurses for more information.
